LETTER-CARRIERS PLEASED.

The United States Supreme Court Decides the Eight-Hour Question. The letter-carriers are much pleased with tie decision of the United : ta es Supreme Court handed down yesterday, affirming the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the letter-carriers in the cases of Aaron 8. Post and Frank Gates, who contended that & letter-carrier's day is eight hours, and that he is entitled to extra pay for any overtime.

John N. Parsons, President of the Letter-Carriers' association of New York, said this morning that although other letter-carriers had suits against the Government, he did not think they would care to make any further claims, but would be satisfied with a fair and right enforcement of the Eight-Hour Day law.

PITTSBURG, March 14 .- About two hundred and fifty negroes from the South arrived at Brinton Station resterday. Colored laborers will be given the South arrived laborers will be given the first chance by the Carnegie Company at all its works in preference to foreigners who apply for work.

James Galey, General Manager of the plant, expects nearly one thousand others in a month. This will mean that as soon as possible all the Slavs will be dismissed. There are about three thousand foreigners alterether.
